Hamron's shot-gun Legislature thought to make a "fair chance" for the Democracy, as the Cincinnati Enquirer calles it, by the gerrymandering policy. It carved out a new county and christened it Hampton. It seems, however, the people ineluded in its bounds are refractory and really propose to run an Independent ticket, and, moreover, the leaders in this movment are calling the negroes to aid them. The Democratic press is on the rampage about it, and threatens to change the name of the county, and the rifle, shot-gan, and midnight raid policy will probably be applied to the Independents pittons rock, so that he might the more as well as to the Republicans. The South must be solid.

Journal's Washington special says: arm and braised body in the top of a Several prominent politicians, friends of Senator Thurman, have come here to work up his prospects for the Democratic presidential nomination. In consequence of the recently announced adhesion to Thurman of the McLean clique of the Ohio Demoeracy, they claim Ohio will be solid from below threw a rope, which was for him. Letters are preparing now to be sent to leading Democrats in every state of the South, urging them to work up the Thurman fever in done in order to get shead of Tilden. who, it is understood, will soon have his agents at work in the South.

THRILLING ACCIDENT.

Not many days ago a student named William Folwell, who accompanied one of the eclipse parties to Denver, met with athrilling and most wonderful adventure on the craggy side of Pike's Peak. He had climbed swiftly away from his companions, and was endevoring to mount an almost prec easily sweep the valley before him, when he lost his footing and feil. Turning three somersaults in the stone-like downward dash, GETTING IN THEIR WORK.—The climber found himself with a broken cedar forty or fifty feet down the mountain sde. The branches of the tree were so thickley clumped that the fall had been out short. There, in the top of the cedar, the student swayed to and fro, lustily using his lungs. When the party got within ear shot they hastened forward, and being unable to approach the tree caught by Folwell, and successfully used to make his escape.

A Scoren murderer was acquit-ted two weeks ago in Elinburgh, on their respective localities. Fate of the Truckee. The low stage of water in the river is a matter of common remark. The vocks are high and dry and in no place will the depth of water exceed a foot or eighteen inches. Daily the flow grows less. The snow is all gone from the mountains, Von Schmidt's dam still dams the outflow of Lake Tahoe, and we now learn that a canal is to be dug into Sierra Valley which will take nearly all of the Little Truckee-the chief tributary. Then two or three other large the accumulation of a Winter's snow and sent it down in a deluge, and then all was over, and the river had but the natural outpour of Tahoe and a few small streams. Much as we regret the fate of the river we think it far better to utilize the water in irrgating broad acres of land and making it blossom with homes and fields. In a few years all of this viciuity will be reclaimed and under cultivation, and the Truckee river will be the direct cause of it all. 'Tis
